

Charles P. Edinger 1932 Obituary

Newspaper article 1932:

“Charles P. Edinger

Charles P. Edinger was born att Neidereisenbach, Germany, April 15, 1852 and died at Otisco, August 19, 1932. At ten years of age, he, with his parents came to America in a sailing vessel. The trip covered a period of forty-two days during which time they encountered severe storms. The family settled in the town of Otisco.

On March 4, 1875, Mr. Edinger married Endora Katherine Shaffer. They had six children namely: William C., Hattie E., Grace M., Albert P., Bert J. and Karl L. Mrs. Edinger died March 26, 1911.

December 4, 1913, he married Elva A. Abbott.

Mr. Edinger has resided in the town of Otisco during his entire life. He has been a very active farmer until about two years ago. Always he has made regular trips to Syracuse with his produce. The last few years he devoted most of his time to trucking.

Mr. Edinger was a very active member of the Reformed Methodist Church. Seldom did he miss a service. Too, he was interested in the activities of the community, always helping where there was need.

Prayer service was held 1:30, Tuesday at the home, followed by service in the Reformed Methodist Church. The large attendance and the display of flowers showed his high esteem among the people.

The deceased member is survived by his wife, one brother Joseph A. Edinger, three sons Albert P., Bert J., and Karl L. Edinger; two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Henderson and Mrs. Grace Bardwell; nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren."

Bio by: Hollis Abbott: <https://www.findagrave.com/user/profile/49141486>

 Date: 19 Aug 1932

 Place: Otisco, Onondaga, New York, USA

 Description: Obituary from 1932 Newspaper clipping by Hollis Abbott